

TRAVEL NEWS FROM DANNY'S LUXURY CRUISE VACATIONS!

Sandals Resorts

Sandals has multiple resorts on the Island of Jamaica. They also have resorts in the Bahamas, Antigua, Grenada, Barbados and one on the way in Curacao. They are planning to open 3 more in Jamaica.

They also have 3 Beaches Resorts, 2 Jamaica and one in Turks and Caicos which is very family friendly.

At Royal Bahamian they will pick you up at the airport in a Rolls Royce if you are in a top level suite. I visited that resort in 2017 when I was on a cruise and

All Inclusive Vacations

Sandals Resorts is one of my favorite all inclusive resorts. They are a 5 star resort. When they say all inclusive it is truly all inclusive. The only thing that is not included is a spa treatment or an excursion. Sandals even includes diving and water skiing as part of your vacation package.

They have multiple restaurants to choose from. If there is more than one resort on an island like in St Lucia you can stay at one and play at all three (Grand St Lucian/ Regency La Toc/ Halcyon Beach).

we went to Nassau. We got a day pass and took a cab from the ship to the resort. It was a fun relaxing day. I got a tour of the resort and Robin sat back and relaxed. We had a lovely lunch.

Let me know where I can send you on your next vacation. Whether it is a cruise or an all inclusive I look forward to sending you away.

During the day the resort is very casual. Being in your bathing suit all day is very common. In the evening it is resort casual. Some restaurants may require slacks in the evening for men and something similar for the ladies.

One has many options for room types: Garden View, Pool View and Ocean View to honeymoon suites with a private pool that come with a butler.

Warm regards,

Danny
